Be still,
and know that I am God.

Psalm 46:10

From the Pastor

“So faith comes from hearing, and hearing through the word of Christ.” — Romans 10:17

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

October reminds us of a significant moment in the history of the Church. On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther is traditionally remembered for posting his Ninety-Five Theses, challenging practices and teachings that he believed needed to be brought back under the authority of God's Word.

At the heart of the Reformation was not Martin Luther himself, but a rediscovery of the good news of Jesus Christ: we are saved by God's grace through faith in Christ—not by our own works or accomplishments. Luther's life and ministry continually pointed people away from themselves and toward the promises of God.

That remains a timely message for us. We live in a world that often tells us to prove ourselves, earn our worth, and measure our lives by what we accomplish. The Gospel tells us something wonderfully different. In Christ, God gives us what we could never earn: forgiveness, reconciliation, and new life.

The Reformation also reminds us of the importance of continually returning to the Word of God. The Church is always in need of being reformed and renewed by the truth of Scripture, not because Christ's Gospel changes, but because we so easily lose sight of it.

This October, may we give thanks for those who have gone before us in the faith, but even more, may we give thanks for the unchanging Gospel they proclaimed: Christ alone, grace alone, faith alone, Scripture alone—to the glory of God alone.

May the Lord keep us rooted in his Word and always point us back to Jesus.

Something for you to think about.

P. Randy
